Moments To Remember.

Another year has passed. It has been an eventful year for all of us at Bedford High School. It has been a challenging and exciting year. As we review the activities of the year, season by season, we find that this year has held many moments for us to remember.

Fall is always associated with studying and scholastic undertakings; winter, with sports and club projects; and spring, with numerous, exciting activities including conventions, science fairs, and the prom. Each of these seasons has special meaning for us . . . each contains "Moments to Remember!"

Our principal, guide, and friend . . . Mr. William N. Lee

High School days are recalled best through the memory of friends. For each of us these friends are different, but for all of us there is one whom we have in common—one who is never too busy when we need him, and one who is always there, greeting us with a smile.

This one, whom we esteem for his integrity, admire for his unfailing energy and sincerity, and honor for his service is Mr. William Lee, our principal, guide, and friend.

Mrs. Thaxton shows Barbara Toms and Reva Sumner the organs of the human body. Wonder if either one of them will ever be a nurse after that.

The BIG slide rule provides Rodney Goggin and David Goode with a real challenge.

Mrs. Whorley and her home economics students enjoy entertaining some children for a class activity.

Winter. . . The spirit of cooperation . . .

Not even the snow could stop these Tri-Hi-Y girls from selling their quota of club candy.

Winter brings with it numerous ideas for club projects and programs. The S.C.A., operating for the first time in our school, set a lively pace for the other clubs. Leadership, cooperation, friendship—all are developed through club participation.

John Burks and Earl Childers thank Mr. Parker for speaking in the Hi-Y assembly on clean scholarship.

Alertness . . . Endurance . . . Strength . . .

The big bonfire and pep rally before the homecoming football game raised school spirit to fever pitch. The Otters won the big game the next night 7-0.

The track team warms up before "hitting the road" for another strenuous practice.

Our athletic program provides a chance for its participants to gain strength and coordination and to learn how to react under the pressure of close games. Athletes and spectators alike will always remember some of the exciting moments of this year's athletic contests.

The football cheerleaders urge the crowd to yell even louder in a pre-game pep rally.

Spring . . As colorful as May

As the snow melts and spring finally creeps around the corner, a whole new flurry of activitives begins. The science fair, M.G.A., Beta convention, variety show, forensic meet and other events are climaxed at last by the Junior-Senior Prom and then, graduation. It is a busy and confused season as well as an exciting and colorful one. Exciting, colorful, busy—that's spring, the gayest season of all.

Aubrey Strode impressed judges and viewers alike with his project on a magnetohydrodynamic generator. He won first place in the advanced ninth grade division.

The S.C.A. elections brought excitement to the entire student body. Here, Danny Scott, candidate for S.C.A. President, and his campaign manager, Erle Byerle, work on one of many posters used in Danny's campaign.

Sowers with exciting moments for all . . .

Students:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to you for the devoted interest, effort and spirit which you have exhibited in taking full advantage of the educational opportunities offered here at Bedford High School. Remember that education is like an unfinished sentence; you may add commas, but there should never be a period.

William N. Lee, Principal Bedford High School

Administration and faculty mold students' lives . . .

The administration and faculty of Bedford High School constantly keep high standards of excellence before the students and then patiently and ceaselessly strive to help each student reach his potential. They work tirelessly and devotedly towards this goal. Always lending themselves to the highest ideals and best principles of education, they work to bring out the best that is in each student. They are understanding teachers, enthusiastic sponsors, and most important of all, good friends to each of us.

Patiently they point out the narrow and difficult path . . .

Often the path to graduation and success is indeed a narrow and difficult one, but we the students of Bedford High have learned to look to our teachers for the knowledge, understanding, and friendship that they so freely give to help us on our way. With their hands guiding us, the obstacles in the path can be surmounted and the final victory won!

S. C. A. gains cooperation of student body . . .

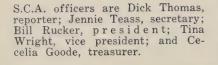

The Student Cooperative Association was organized for the first time at B.H.S. this year. The S.C.A. is the voice of the student body, and as such, provides a working basis for student-faculty cooperation. The primary aim of the S.C.A. is the development of attitudes of, and practice in, good citizenship. The S.C.A. Council is composed of elected officers, class presidents, club presidents, editors of school publications, a representative from each home room, and three sponsors. One of its first projects was to procure a piano for the school through a student fund-raising drive.

President, Bill Rucker, has a pre-meeting conference with sponsor, Mr. Coleman and PTA representative, Mrs. Watson.

Bill Rucker is the first elected president of the entire student body. Under his leadership the Student Cooperative Association has become firmly established at B.H.S.

Alica Hicks, Tina Wright, Alice Coleman, Sue Nance, Donna Parker, Phillip Sloss, Gerald Wood, George Newton, Nancy Watson, Danny Scott, Judy Scott, Sidney Troutman, Carolyn Bowles, Carrington Harlow, Carolyn Foutz, Wayne Chandler, and Jimmy Noland.

Beta Club encourages high scholarship . . .

The Beta Club is a national honor society which symbolizes character, leadership, and ability. Members are chosen from the tenth through the twelfth grades at the beginning of the second semester each year. A grade average of ninety and approval by the faculty are requirements for membership. Activities this year included money-raising projects, the editing of the S.C.A. Handbook, and participation in the state Beta Club convention where the club ran Bert Nance for state president.

New members this year are Pam Coffey, Suzanne Jones, Loretta Lynch, Cynthia Twark, Mickey Lazenby, Diane Behrens, Nancy Meador, Marcia Ramsey, Jerry Cunningham, Judy Turner, Patsy Overstreet, Virginia Watson, Other members are Huck Berry, Larry Horne, Bill Rucker, Ben Brown, Mrs. Gordon, sponsor, Tommy Bradley, John Burks, and Walter Hopkins. Absent were Andy Yowell and Pauline Wilson.

Linda Albert, Jean Scott, Richard Lalonde, Ginger Reynolds, George Cooper, Henry Fizer, Roy Vaughn, and Sue Walker.

Doug Scott, business manager; Judy Scott, editor; Mrs. Turner, sponsor; and Carolyn Bowles, assistant editor; pause for a moment during their busy schedule. The editors with their sponsor have worked long hours and have given much time to produce a worthwhile annual.

"The Peaks" captures another year between its covers . . .

Under the guidance of Mrs. Turner, each year members of the Senior class of B.H.S. publish their annual "The Peaks!" This year, as usual, each member of the staff worked long and hard to produce a yearbook everyone would enjoy.

The editors spent long hours drawing layouts, writing copy, and getting the right pictures taken. The ad editor and committee covered hundreds of miles in securing ads for the annual. And no mat-

The job has been a difficult and trying experience at times, but we all realize the opportunities and rewards that came our way through this responsibility.

With the last page finished, we, the staff proudly submit our 1961-1962 annual to you.

Nancy Watson, ad editor, and her ad committee traveled many miles in selling ads for the "Peaks." They are standing—Betty Hurt, Hazel Smith, Ellen Hylton, and kneeling—Nancy Watson, Martha Dean, and Mary Jane Overstreet.

Our photographers were on the job morning, noon, and night to secure the right pictures for our annual. Our sports editors drew layouts and wrote copy to portray the sports activities at B.H.S. Pictured are Mac Nance, photographer; Larry Horne, photographer; Judy Chafin, sports editor; Carrington Harlow, sports editor; and Paul Holland, photographer.

Working with their sponsor, Miss Bibb, are Tina Wright, assistant editor; Cecelia Goode, exchange editor; Alica Hicks, editor; and Jennie Teass, business manager.

The 'Otter's Lookout" reports school news . . .

The "Otter's Lookout" staff has worked hard this year to produce an appealing and worthwhile school paper. The "Otter's Lookout" is produced through the efforts of interested students. All work is done outside of class. In early fall the paper staff sells subscriptions to obtain funds for the publication. Students who are on the "Otter's Lookout" staff are offered many opportunities and enjoy many rewarding experiences during the year.

Hard-working reporters are Diane Behrens, Billy Wilkes, Ginger Reynolds, Jean Scott, Loretta Lynch, Shirley Bumgarner, Linda Albert, Lynda Bailey, George Barton, Jewel Lee Martin, Martha Dean, Terry Thompson, Sherry Eastridge, Henry Fizer, and Janice Johnson. These staff members look over an issue of the "Lookout." Standing are Lynda Craghead, feature editor; Mary Frances Michael, sports editor; Martha Dean; John Burks, editorial editor; and Huck Berry, sports editor. Seated are Mickey Lazenby; Judy Turner, news editor; and Jean Johnson, club editor. Absent when picture was taken: Miss Marie Boothe, sponsor.

The Hi-Y officers plan one of their projects. They are Earl Childers, Chaplain; Huck Berry, Projects Chairman; Mac Nance, Secretary-Treasurer; John Burks, President; Mr. Coleman, sponsor; and Carrington Harlow, Vice-President.

Elbert Watson, Andy Yowell, and Robert Owen participated in the Hi-Y's Clean Speech Campaign in the school.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club is a Christian service organization for junior and senior boys, affiliated with the Young Men's Christian Association. This year, the Hi-Y conducted a Clean Speech Campaign in the school, participated in the Heart Fund Drive, and sent delegates to Model General Assembly and to the district convention.

These members took part in the Heart Fund Drive. They are Phillip Arthur, Phil Sloss, Erle Byerle, George Barton, and Daniel Landis.

The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Create, Maintain,

George Newton, Jim Noland, and Jerry Chesson helped with various projects and campaigns which contributed to their successful club year.

Tri-Hi-Y

This year, the Senior Tri-Hi-Y had many activities which helped its members to grow through service to others. Aside from many general community services, the club had a fund raising project for YMCA World Service and a special Christmas project. There were also many opportunities to participate in conferences and workshops.

These girls served on various committees and helped to make this club year a successful one. They are Jill Bowyer, Lynda Craghead, Joyce Johnson, Mary Jane Overstreet, Martha Dean, Ellen Hylton, Mary Fran Michael, Carolyn Bowles, Eleanor Johnson, Nancy Watson, and Betty Hurt.

Judy Chafin and Pam Scott help President Donna Parker make plans for the next club meeting.

Treasurer Sydney Troutman gets suggestions from fellow club members on fund raising projects. These members are Cecelia Barton; Peggy Stevens; Miss Ruff, sponsor; Sue Nance; Terry Thompson; Joyce Duncan; Jackie Faribault; Sue Walker; Carolyn Wheeler; and Tina Wright.

Extend . . . Christian Character

Jennie Teass, Sherry Eastridge, Donna Arthur, Cecelia Goode, Carol Stephens, Alica Hicks, and Judy Scott help Chaplain Jean Johnson plan devotions.

The Kappa-Chi started a scrapbook of their activities this year. These interested members are Donna Pugh, Diane Hughes, Carolee Dudley, Betty Brown, Cynthia Twark, Mary Coleman, and Shireen Tolley.

Officers are Nancy Meador, President; Ginny Newton, Vice President; Maxwell Goode, Secretary; Diane Behrens, Treasurer; Joanne Scott, Chaplain; and Linda Spradlin, Historian.

Susie Stephens, Marjorie Scott, Karen Coleman, Sandra Troutman, Joyce Lee, and Faye Pugh take an active part as their club helps collect for the various drives in town.

The Kappa-Chi and Zeta Phi are junior branches of the Tri-Hi-Y. Under the guidance of Mrs. English and Mrs. Falls, these two clubs shared many of the same projects, such as selling candy for World Service and collecting money for various community funds.

The motto for these clubs is "clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living." This year has been a successful and rewarding one for the girls, and they have helped themselves as well as their home, school, and community.

These members take pride in writing the "Thought for the Week" on the boards in each classroom. They are Diane Behrens, Patsy Abbott, Mary Teass, Jean Scott, Saundra Krantz, Ginny Newton, Nancy Meador, Joanne Scott, Maxwell Goode, and Mrs. English, sponsor.

Kay Musgrove, Susan Webber, Barbara Dove, Liza Rucker, Laura Ann Parker, and Barbara Rucker hurry from classes to their club meeting.

These members take time out from their busy schedules to pose for our photographer. They are Carol Skelly, Claudia Twark, Edie Ray Kyle, Sharon Gray, Molly Jenkins, Dita Montanes, Cynthia Powers, Carol Ann Woodroof, and Janet Walker.

Zeta-Phi

The capable officers of the Zeta Phi are Gail Fellers, Vice President; Virginia Watson, Chaplain; Judy Turner, Treasurer; Mrs. Falls, Sponsor; Patsy Overstreet, Secretary; and Coral Lee Stephenson, President.

These girls are preparing to sell candy, one of the club's money-raising projects for the year. They are Jewel Lee Martin, Ruth White, Micky Lazenby, Marcia Ramsey, Martie Walker, Lynda Bailey, Madie Goode, and Betty Chafin.

The Junior Hi-Y officers meet with Mr. Sherman, sponsor, to discuss sponsoring football awards. They are Richard Chaffin, Vice-President; Danny Dowdy, Chaplain; Mr. Sherman, sponsor; Sonny Bowyer, President; and Freddy Duis, Treasurer.

The Junior Hi-Y is a branch of the Hi-Y and is affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. The club has 22 members this year from the Freshman and Sophomore classes. They all take a deep interest in the club's activities. Mr. Paul Sherman is the club's advisor. During the past year, the club sponsored football awards, helped with the Heart Fund Drive, and engaged in many other activities, which helped to make this year a successful one for their club.

Jr. Hi-Y

These members, Johnny Overstreet, Mike Parker, Bobby Scott, Hal Jarvis, Ronny Henderson, and Charles Reynolds, take an active part in the club's activities.

GAA promotes good sportsmanship . . .

The Girls' Athletic Association is open to all girls interested in sports and good sportsmanship. The purpose of the club is to encourage the girls of our school, in all phases of the physical education program, to promote good scholarship and school spirit, to establish the ideal of health, and to develop a true spirit of sportsmanship in all of its members. Under the guidance of their new advisor, Mrs. Stuart, the club has had many activities this year. It sponsored two cars in the Homecoming parade, in addition to decorating the field goal posts. It also had an assembly program and a dance.

Varsity Club promotes clean sportsmanship . . .

The Varsity Club at B.H.S. consists of boys who have earned varsity letters in football, basketball, baseball, or track. This club originated only last year, but it has already established itself as a worthwhile organization. Under the leadership of Mr. Slone, the Varsity Club strives to create interest in athletics and to emphasize clean sportsmanship.

The officers this year are Carrington Harlow, secretary; Ronnie Overstreet, president; Mac Nance, vice president; and Mr. Joe Slone, sponsor. Absent from this picture are Eldo Daniels, treasurer; and Huck Berry, chaplain.

Hobby Club officers led their club through a successful year. They are Gerald Wood, president; Richard Wilkes, vice-president; and Aubrey Strode, secretary-treasurer.

The Hobby Club . . .

The Hobby Club was organized three years ago as a branch of the Science Club to challenge those who were interested in electronics. In addition to learning basic techniques of being an amateur radio operator, members learn to diagnose and correct ailments of their own radio and television sets. A major project for the year has been the building of an amplifier for use at all school functions. They cooperate with the Science Club in Science Fair projects, in the annual family night program, and in sponsoring a dance to meet financial needs.

These members examine a radio receiver. They are Johnny St. Claire, Henry Boyle, Eddie Reynolds, Frank Draper, and Wayne Overstreet.

Mr. Thaxton is explaining the functions of a radio transmitter to Bobby Sowers, Russel Stevens, Darrol Davis, Gerald Wood, Bobby Mitchell, Aubrey Strode, Richard Wilkes, and Jim Cravens.

All students of Latin are members of the Torchbearers' Club. Miss Virginia Boan, teacher of Latin, sponsors the club. Slave day is held each year. On this day new club members must serve as slaves for the old members. The highlight of the year is a banquet served in traditional Roman style.

The third year Latin class presents the program on Latin Club initiation day. They are Ben Brown, Danny Scott, Terry Thompson, Skip Owen, Andy Yowell, and Huck Berry.

Nancy Watson, John Burks, and Judy Scott are the fourth year Latin students.

Other club members are Janice Johnson, Sidney Troutman, James Smith, Lynda Craghead, Linnette Hicks, Wayland Denton, Terry Thompson, Nicky Markham, and Erle Byerle.

Le Cercle Français

All students who take French are eligible for membership in the French Club. The purpose of the club is to stimulate more interest in French. Miss Marie Boothe is sponsor of the club. Their activities for the year included a meeting each month, caroling at Christmas, the annual banquet, and a spring picnic.

Peggy Stevens, Pam Coffey, Martie Walker, Carolyn Citty, Sue Nance, Jackie Faribault, Alice Coleman, Tina Wright, and Patsy Overstreet.

Other French students are Jewel Lee Martin, Bert Nance, Virginia Watson, Judy Turner, Dana Hogan, Patsy Abbott, James Owen, Diane Behrens, Sue Walker, and Phillip Sloss.

Otters have most successful season in years . . .

The Otters of Bedford High completed the best season that a Bedford team has had in seven years. They fought hard all the way finishing the season with a 7-3 record. Good fortune began with a victory over a first-rate Lexington team. After being side-tracked by Clifton Forge 21-14, the big BHS team finally got moving as they won six of their last seven games. The mighty red and white showed its power, when it held Altavista to a total of 11 yards on the ground while rolling up 205 yards.

In addition to having a successful season, the team gained valuable knowledge by learning of good sportsmanship and personal responsibility.

Otters break even . . .

The 1961-1962 Otters started the basketball season off slowly by losing eight of their first twelve games. As the season progressed, however, the team gained experience and strove even harder to have a successful season. Their efforts were rewarded as the team won six of their last seven games and completed the season with an overall 9-9 record.

In district competition the Otters had a 5-3 record and were in third place at the end of the regular season.

With their new coach, Mrs. Stuart, the 1961-62 Otterettes were a small but powerful team. They were defeated only twice by Franklin and Floyd, teams that have been rivals for several years.

Co-captains, Mary Frances Michael and Eleanor Johnson were two of the four to return this year to lead the Otterettes in their games in which they all displayed a fine spirit and attitude.

Track team "runs, leaps and dashes" to victory . . .

The track team, after a rebuilding year, worked hard to show Bedford High one of its best track teams in many years. Seniors George Barton, John Burks, Erle Byerle, and Daniel Landis and Junior John Dudek led the team in its efforts.

The BHS boys started the season on the right foot by defeating Altavista 65-51. Sparked by this victory, the team continued to improve steadily throughout the season.

Baseball team has ability and spirit . . .

Following one of the best baseball seasons in nine years, the big BHS team felt a very real challenge to improve on the past records and to have a truly successful season. The goal was high, but so was the spirit and determination of the team.

With the hitting of Captain Mac Nance, Rodney Goggin, and Nicky Markham, and the pitching of Mike Adams, Carrington Harlow, and Ashby Whorley, the team had real ability to back their strong determination.

These girls cheered their team to victory

There was never a dull moment on the B.H.S. football field this year with these cheerleaders on hand to encourage the boys to do their best.

Mrs. Whorley, the sponsor, was a great help to the girls in planning their annual projects such as the Bon Fire and the dance after the Homecoming game which was a big success!

Basketball cheerleaders give support to their team . . .

Those familiar voices you heard echoing in the gym during the 1961-1962 basketball season at Bedford High belonged to the active girls who were chosen by the faculty and the students as the ones most capable of cheering the team on to victory.

Under the leadership of Martha Dean, Head

Cheerleader, the girls worked hard learning new cheers and teaching them to the students. They kept the student body informed of the games by selling ribbons with the opponents' names on them. These ribbons, as well as the new bright red uniforms, were a striking highlight of the season for the squad.

A favorite cheer, "Fight! Fight!"

J. V. Cheerleaders aid Varsity in promoting spirit.

The second Junior Varsity cheering squad at Bedford High School followed up the trend of Junior Varsity cheerleading, which was begun last year, by adding their school spirit to the football and basketball games throughout the seasons.

A student-faculty committee chose these girls on the basis of those who were best qualified to do the job well. They have indeed proved their abilities to work with others, and the valuable experience they have gained will aid them in becoming Varsity cheerleaders in the future.

Otters defeat Fort Chiswell.

The 1961 Homecoming activities were set off the night before the game with a big bonfire and pep rally staged by the cheerleaders. Friday night the spirits of the team and the student body were keyed to fever pitch, and the game against Fort Chiswell was a rough and exciting one, which the home team won 7-0.

At halftime, the Queen and her court were presented, and after the game, a victory dance was held in the gym as a climax to the celebration.

The Freshman skit "Distress on the Farm" won second place.

Variety Show has "Mardi Gras" theme . .

The Seniors used Mardi Gras as the theme of their annual Variety Show. Throughout the evening lovely girls and their handsome escorts vied for the titles of Miss and Mr. B.H.S.

While the contestants were on stage, students entertained with special talent acts. In skit competition the Sophomores won first place with their idea of "A Summer Scene," and a judo act headed by George Newton received a special talent award.

The performance was climaxed by the selection of George Newton as Mr. B.H.S. and Barbara Dove as Miss B.H.S.

Under the direction of Miss Marie Boothe and with Larry Horne and Donna Parker in the lead roles, the Seniors presented their play, "The Perfect Idiot" on December 1. The play centered around Dan Tennyson, a boy-genius, and his efforts to prove himself a social success so that his parents would allow him to go to college. Mr. Latherby, an important soap tycoon, provided the principal ingredient for hilarity when he hypnotized himself with Dan's "hypnotic suggestion invention" and began acting like a rabbit. The laughter-filled play was termed a rollicking success by everyone.

The cast poses for a picture after a successful performance.

Doug Scott and George Newton "escort" Mr. Slone to jail as Lawton Saunders looks on.

Senior Carnival declared highly successful . . .

Confusion and gaiety reigned in the gym the night the Seniors presented their annual carnival. John Burks and Betty Hurt served as co-chairmen of the committee that planned the various attractions, such as the traditional fun house, horror house, basketball and baseball throws, and concession stands. A new feature this year was the jail, which almost everyone present visited at least one time.

In the middle of the evening, the carnival royalty was announced. These were: Phyllis Croft, Queen; Bert Nance, King; Patty Jo Harris, Princess; and Jimmy Denton, Prince.

What on earth is Jimmy Noland doing to Mary Fran?

As Wayne Craig looks on, George Newton appears on the stage in assembly to advertize the carnival and particularly the jail. Wonder if he usually looks like that?

No carnival could be complete without a clown, and Martha Dean made a funny one.

Walter Hopkins tries his skill at the basketball throw. What happened to the ball, Walter?

Class Giftorians, Betty Hurt and Daniel Landis.

Impersonators, Mary F. Michael and Erle Byerle.

Class Night

With their graduation only days away, the members of the Senior Class met for their Class Night Banquet. Together they reviewed the school years and then caught a glimpse of the future

After the banquet the class giftorians, Betty Hurt and Daniel Landis, presented amusing gifts to their fellow class members. The Class Song, written by Donna Parker, was then presented. In a lighter vein, the various Seniors were impersonated by Mary Frances Michael and Erle Byerle. Later, the Class History, written by Janet Bowyer, the Class Will, by Bill Rucker, the Class Poem, by George Barton, and the Class Prophecy, by Eleanor Johnson, were read. Finally, Carolyn and Ronnie Overstreet introduced the Senior Superlatives, who had previously been voted on by the class members.

Class of 1962 reaches the milestone of | graduation . . .

The long-awaited night arrived at last for the Seniors as on June 8 the Class of 1962 received their diplomas and bade goodbye to their alma mater. It was both a sad and a joyous occasion, for while our hearts rejoiced at graduation, we could not help feeling sad at leaving our friends and our beloved school.

To continue the theme "Education — For What?" introduced by Judy Scott in her salutatory, Doug Scott spoke on "Intellectual Development;" Donna Parker, on "Economic Opportunities;" and Bill Rucker, on "Continued Scientific Advancement." John Burks concluded this part of the program with his valedictory address.

Our program also included the awarding of English, mathematics, history, and science medals. Awards were also given to the DAR and SAR good citizens and to high ranking Latin students. The Beta seal and the Student Citizenship seal were attached to the diplomas of those Seniors achieving those honors.

Lee, Principal. Alica Hicks, absent from the picture, was also among the top ten Seniors.

Here and There at B. H. S. . . .

These students take advantage of their lunch break to clown in the snow which brought enjoyment to all.

The Seniors finally made it to New York! The Statue of Liberty was a welcome sight after all the hard work involved in raising the money for the trip!

Bill Rucker, our S.C.A. President, thanks Ken Tomlinson, State S.C.A. Vice-President, for his speech to our student body on S.C.A. work.

Mrs. LaCroix and Mrs. Hanks make-up Gael Panter and Paul Holland for their roles in the Senior Play.

Ben Brown and Judy Scott wrote prize-winning essays. Ben won first place in the school with his conservation essay. Judy placed second in the state with her "Jobs for the Handicapped"

Henry Fizer received a $25 grant from the Junior Academy of Sci-ence for work on his ESP science project.

Football's most valuable lineman, Ronnie Overstreet, and most valuable back, George Newton, led the Otters to a winning season.

Elbert Watson won the J.C. Sportsmanship award, Donna Parker was chosen for the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award, and Bill Rucker for the S.A.R. award.

Hard work and real effort bring their own rewards . . .

These County Science Fair winners went to Roanoke to the Regional Science Fair. They are Henry Fizer, George Cooper, Andy Yowell, Jean Johnson, David Leach, and Jean Scott. Also, not pictured is Mary Frances Thaxton.

THE MOON... and beyond!

Bright, new horizons await today's students . . . new technologies . . . new medicines . . . even the moon and whatever lies beyond.

How far today's students go in this space age depends partly on their imagination but primarily on their training. Conquering new horizons will demand more of today's graduates - more knowledge, more skills, more training and more specialization.

Our Free Enterprise system, with its high living standards, gives everyone an opportunity to "shoot for the moon" in any field. Whether or not our target is reached depends on how well trained we are to launch ourselves.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We of the Peaks staff wish to acknowledge the assistance of the following persons:

Mrs. H. C. Turner, sponsor and advisor to the Peaks staff, for her many hours of hard work.

The student body, faculty, and administration for their support and cooperation.

The staff for the hours of work they have put into the preparation of the 1962 PEAKS.

Mr. Allen Huddleston for the pictures he has taken for this issue of the annual.

The Delmar Printing Company and Mr. Arnold Ward for printing the annual.

The advertisers without whose interest this publication would not have been possible.

Mrs. E. L. Falls for providing time during class for typists to type the copy.

To the PEAKS staff of 1963 we extend our sincerest wishes for a successful and prosperous year.

Judy Scott, Editor

Carolyn Bowles, Assistant Editor
